

Swallowed up by a greater Auckland? Or more local decision -making?

- In the next month your opinions will be canvassed to ask you how you think our Waiheke, our Gulf, & our region should be governed.
- It's been nearly 20 years since any official scrutiny into how local democracy is organised on Waiheke.
- Now's our chance to have our say. The final results will affect life on Waiheke and in the Hauraki Gulf for decades.

PUBLIC MEETING

about the Royal Commission on Auckland Governance

When: Saturday 29th March, 2pm
Where: Ostend War Memorial Hall

Speakers include, amongst others,

- ARC Chairman, Mike Lee with a regional view –
- Ex Minister of Local Government, Sandra Lee

Meeting format will allow for extended input from the floor.
The fight for local democracy has now begun.
This is the time for everyone to be involved.

Authorised by the Waiheke Island Community Planning Group Inc in association with a Waiheke Community Board Grant. For further info see www.waihekeros.wordpress.com

Swallowed up by a greater Auckland? Or more local decision -making?

- In the next month your opinions will be canvassed to ask you how you think our Waiheke, our Gulf, & our region should be governed.
- It's been nearly 20 years since any official scrutiny into how local democracy is organised on Waiheke.
- Now's our chance to have our say. The final results will affect life on Waiheke and in the Hauraki Gulf for decades.

PUBLIC MEETING

about the Royal Commission on Auckland Governance

When: Saturday 29th March, 2pm
Where: Ostend War Memorial Hall

Speakers include, amongst others,

- ARC Chairman, Mike Lee with a regional view –
- Ex Minister of Local Government, Sandra Lee

Meeting format will allow for extended input from the floor.
The fight for local democracy has now begun.
This is the time for everyone to be involved.

Authorised by the Waiheke Island Community Planning Group Inc in association with a Waiheke Community Board Grant. For further info see www.waihekeros.wordpress.com